Samuel: Basi tuombe, Mwenyezi Mungu mkaaji wa milele, wakati tunakuja mikononi mwako kwa unyenyekevu mwingi, tunajua kwamba Mungu wewe ni mwaminifu, na kwa kila jambo tunayotarajia kufanya mahali hapa Mwenyezi Mungu, tunakualika uwe pamoja nasi. Tunakapo aanza sasa, na kupita kamati Mwenyezi Mungu, tutasema Halleluya kwa kila kitu. Baba Mungu tunakushukuru kwa wageni wetu ambaye umewaongoza kutoka mahali walipotoka, na wamefika hapa Lokichar kwa salama salimini. Baba, tunakurudishia shukurani kwa sababu umewaongoza safari hiyo salama salimini. Baba Mungu wabarikishe wote, watakao toa maoni, wabarikishe mikononi mwako, sababu najua kwamba wewe mwenyewe, ni wewe ulianzisha kutoa maoni juu ya Constitution, ama juu ya sheria ambaye inaweza kuongoza watu. Baba kila jambo bila wewe hakuna kitu inaweza kufanyika, lakini Baba wewe hutusaidia, na wewe hutuhurumia, utafanya yale mangumu yawe rahisi Mwenyezi Mungu. Asante Mungu kwa sababu viongozi mbalimbali watabaka mbalimbali na wananchi watukufu ambaye wako mahali hapa, tunawakambilii mikononi mwako. Mwenyezi Mungu, utumbariki, utufungulie milango na mandirisha ya Mbinguni, utumiminie baraka, na Mwenyezi Mungu ukutane hata na mahitaji yetu. Baba Mungu hata maoni ambayo tunaitoa leo, isiende iwekwe kwa kabati, mbali iwe ni yale ambayo itapelekwa na italeta sisi majibu ambayo tunahitaji. Baba Mungu tenda hayo kulingana na mapenzi yako. Naomba machache kwa Jina la Yesu aliye mkombozi wetu. Amen.

Margaret Sore: Mimi ni Margaret Sore, mimi ni secretary ya wanawake. Hapa mtanisamehe nitakuwa nikisoma kwa Kingereza,

Summary of recommendation for constitutional review from Lokichar Women Groups, Lokichar division.

Preamble: The electoral system should be redefined to ensure the participation of women in the electoral process.

The constitution should also require legislation dealing with electoral practices, policies and offences.

The provision of constitutional should be comprehensive leaving little or no room for silences. Women concerns should be addressed in the constitutional class.

Harmonization of current legal framework, address its weaknesses, contradictions and threats in terms of gender issues; e.g the marriage laws, property law, etc.

Basic rights: The right to health care education and nutrition should be provided in the Bill of Rights, and the means of their fulfillment in the constitution.

Land Issue: The land tenure system should be looked at broadly, but the gender perspective would be crucial; land ownership rights of women needs to be reinvested. There should be established institutions to support a constitutional democracy among them.

Gender Equality Commission: There should be a constitutional provision for engendering the national budget.

Education was key to the success of the new constitutional dispensation. It was recommended that the constitution levels of education be examined to make education accessible.

The constitution of the family should expressly be protected in the constitutional design. As part of the political parties and ensuring upholding constitutional order, they should be required to subscribe to the basic principle of gender equality through such constitutional injection of legislature political will be required.

Gender Commission: The new constitution should provide an independent gender commission to monitor and review process in the implementation of gender equality, law and policies to pursue existing national development policies and programmes. Recommended Amendment to them consistent with a gender sensitive democratic agenda. The agenda commission should have an appropriate interaction with a link to _____ (inaudible) parliament so as to ensure that its recommendations are legislated and monitored.

Citizenship: The law barring a woman from interjection:

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Ngoja kidogo mama, Wapi yule translator? Hawa watu tunataka wasikie maneno gani inazungumzwa. Fanya hivi, simama kando hivi, hapa karibu, so that we don't have the interference with the recording. Endelea tu from where you have reached.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Asante sana Mama. Tumefurahi ni wewe umetutanguliza, asante, una vitu vingi lakini tutasoma yote.

Yote hiyo tutasoma. Upande wa bunge, ungependa kitu chochote kifanyike upande wa wanawake? Useme?

Margaret Sore: Ninataka wanawake wahushishwe kwa upande wa wabunge kwa njia hii:

Inatakikana wakati wajumbe wakiwa hamsini, ata akina mama wawe hamsini.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: Tena upande wa culture, nafikiri huku hamtairi wanawake, sasa huku kuna vitu gani nya utamanduni vile ambavyo unafikiri Katiba inaweza kulinda na zile inaweza kuwacha? Upande wa wanawake umesema mambo ya ndoa ya mapema lakini kuna nini ingine unaona inaweza kuwa upande huu?

Margaret Sore: Kama maneno ya ... wakati bwana anakufa, inheritance, woman inheritance. Halafu hii ya mama kulingana na Turkana community mwanamke hatakikani asimame mbele ya wanaume aongee, hata akiwa na maoni mazuri, huwa anawekwa anachukuliwa akiwa kama chombo dhaifu.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Sasa wewe utachukuliwa kama chombo?

Margaret Sore: Lazima ichukuliwe uwekwe kwa Katiba.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Okay, sasa nataka kujua kwa hii memorandum, ulisema organization yenu ni ipi?

Margaret Sore: Ni women group.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: We ndie secretary kwa nyinyi?

Margaret Sore: Yee.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Kwa kitu gani?

Margaret Sore: Women group.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Women group gani?

Margaret Sore: Ya division. (silence) Lokichar Division.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Kuna Lokichar division women group?

Margaret Sore: Eeh

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Asante. Nimekuuliza mambo ya mali (bride price)?

Margaret Sore: Niliongea hio, lakini sasa watu wetu wamekuwa wangumu kabisa. Tulikuwa tunataka hiyo pia tukiwa wanakenya, hapa kwetu mahali iko juu sana, tunataka ipunguzwe, at least kwa ile kiwango ambayo mtu anaweza kupata bibi yake na wakae na waishi.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Sasa mlizungumuza, ikiwa ngumu ndio vizuri, ndio tumepita hapa, sasa kanusha tu, mliona mahari ni kitu kizuzi?

Margaret Sore: Tuliona ni kitu kizuri.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Asante basi, weka sahihi pale tupate Hannington Lopatio. Ni wewe? Sijui ni nani atatafusiri basi, Hannington Lopatio: Nitasema kwa Kingereza halafu niongee Kiturkana. I will only say one and then I talk in Kiturkana.

Com. Mutakha Kangu: Is there anybody else who can translate?

Regina Ikar: kiaki esomata atoyena nyo ifanya a lowahi aloche

Translator: We want education to be availed to us, and the interior so that we know what is happening in the other parts of the country.

Regina Ikar: mam akirum ngaberu

Translator: The issue of when a man dies nobody should inherit the woman.

Regina Ikar: kingerit nu

Translator: We are totally refusing that, we are not going to be inherited.

Regina Ikar: nabo na eduanotr ngabero?

Translator: When I go back, nobody has clearly come out when the wife dies what will happen?

Regina Ikar: esakate tarai ngabero

Translator: They want when a woman dies,

Regina Ikar: ngide lu idongete ka apakache

Translator: Those kids that have remained with their father,

Regina Ikar: atoyena eboyer kech

Translator: We want the government to monitor how this man is taking up the children.

Regina Ikar: abwlar ngaikatok ibore en

Translator: Its actually disrespecting the deceased.

Regina Ikar: echamakina nakina ibore ngini ngabero

Translator: We should have a provision where my relatives will go and take back the children from their father so that they can take care of them.

Regina Ikar: nakisi kechi akimuj

Translator: So that husband now will get the food give to the relatives and then the relatives will now cater for the children.

Regina Ikar: alo turkan

Translator: Here in Turkana, it is spacious.

Regina Ikar: kisaki kiinakini sua ngibaren

Translator: We want the government through the constitution to create a range land for the animals of these pastoralists.

Regina Ikar: nyo ifanyia stima na lorokon

Translator: We have the hydro power in Turkana and it was meant for the Turkanas. I don't know why it is not benefiting the Turkanas.

Regina Ikar: aria ibore ngini ebiashara a ngiturkana

Translator: We have no enough development because we have no hydro power.

Regina Ikar: mam itwan igiri ngide kosi lokasia

Translator: Everyday our children are leaving schools, leaving colleges, universities, and we have not seen the government employing them.

Regina Ikar: kinomi sua ngatottol kisomata ngide kosi

Translator: Nowadays we are burning charcoal with our children and they have gone to school properly.

Regina Ikar: nyi ifanya itwan ipei ngikassia lukaalak

Translator: Why does one person possess a lot of responsibilities or a lot of jobs, he is the chairman, the secretary somewhere, he is what, is he the only one educated?

Regina Ikar: kisaki kiinakini dangu ekas

Translator: We want there to be equal distribution of jobs, even those who have not gone to school, if there is something they can do, they should be given so that they can do.

Regina Ikar: kiinakin ngidawi a ngibaren

Translator: We want the government to avail free drugs for our livestock.

Regina Ikar: taanyuania ni egielario

Translator: We want the government to look for the market for our livestock.

Regina Ikar: kingoloki nangolenyang ibore eni

Translator: We want the government to investigate all the diseases affecting our animals.

Regina Ikar: kitedakai ngibaren kosi

Translator: The government should critically investigate all the diseases affecting the animals.

Regina Ikar: nakina ngiraya eskul lo a pas

Translator: From Nursery school up to the highest level, we want the government to avail free education for the pastoralists.

Regina Ikar: yaunai ngidawai nikosi

Translator: The government must bring medical personnel to the pastoralists.

Regina Ikar: kisaki nikilimokini ngae echamakina eliwor ekapolon

Translator: During elections we don't want to be bought, we want us to be educated on who should be elected into becoming the next leader.

Regina Ikar: nikasaki kiinakini ngaropiae echaguneta ngikapolok

Translator: Sometimes when you are given money, then you go back again regretting, I wish I had not taken the money.

Regina Ikar: kiira nangolenyang ngakiro a ngitunga a luche

Translator: We want the government to respect the views of the common man so that when we go to ask our leaders something, they should also listen to us and take keen interest on what we are trying to ask.

Regina Ikar: nesakenete ngitunga akiirar nyo esakete ngitunga ebalasi kori ngaropia

Translator: Sometimes leaders do not take keen interest on what their electorate ask for, they usually assume that the electorates are looking for money.

Regina Ikar: ni ibunio tamarai, ibunit naropiae?

Translator: When you are coming, they start saying, "now you are coming for the issue of money".

Regina Ikar: imianakinete kechi eshida lukitikitii sua

Translator: Leaders do assume the problems affecting those people who elected them.

Regina Ikar: kisaki toyenae atamar sua kichagui ngitungaa

Translator: We want the government to recognize that it is the people who are electing this government of the day.

Regina Ikar: yaunai ngabankia diyete

Translator: Banking services must also be brought closer to the people.

Regina Ikar: kilipaki county council ngide eskul

Translator: The county council must also take charge to educate the children of the pastoralists.

Regina Ikar: nyo bo pe ingarakia lu ilipate ngaropiae nguna?

Translator: We are asking why the county council money is not helping the people who are tax-payers?

Regina Ikar: kilipa nangolenyang ngaropiae a ngikansolai

Translator: We want the government to pay salaries for the councillors.

Regina Ikar: nikisaki kiutarai ngide luuchik

Translator: We are against the idea of small children or small girls being married before time.

Regina Ikar: kori kitengakinai ngitunga akiutar

Translator: Again we are against the idea of forcing ladies to get married.

Regina Ikar: iutanarete ngitunga ngide luuchik, anibo eduani kidongo neni

Translator: Sometimes we force small girls to get married to old men and when the man dies, they remain desperate.

Regina Ikar: arumor nakang

Translator: That's all.

Com. Adagaka: Ngoja mama. Asante sana kwa maoni yako; kwa hii organization, what position do you hold?

Regina Ikar: aria ayong chairlady

Translator: She is the Chairlady.

Com. Adagala: Chairlady of? Just say what the organization is _____ (not clear)

Regina Ikar: a ngaberu kane

Translator: I'm the Chairlady of the local women.

Com. Adagala: What I wanted to know, is the hydro electric power, you said it does not benefit locals and then you said, you burn charcoal, how would you like it to benefit locals. Which hydro electric? Tukwell? How would you like it to benefit you, especially from women's point of view?

Regina Ikar: kisaki yaunai astima ne etumiasi sua a kitare ngamanat

Translator: We want this hydro power to be brought to us, so that we can use it for irrigation, we can use it for telephone services, if my child is in Nairobi I can contact him through the telephone.

End of side 1 tape 2

Regina Ikar: kiyununi a Tv kwa ngitunga luche

Translator: ebala kiira kech. Kisaki Ewoi apalo

Ewoi Apalo: mam nakalak pe aria abala eya ngiturkana nabor

Translator: He doesn't have much to say but he wants to say that the Turkana community has a lot of... so many things have passed them by.

Ewoi Apalo: eking kiro Ewoi apalo

Translator: Ewoi Apalo is his name.

Ewoi Apalo: eruoro alo turkana alu iboete anikalononi

Translator: He is talking about the local Turkanas who live outside town.

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki ngidawi a ngibaren

Translator: We need medicine for our livestock.

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki kila itwan ikwan mere ewor bon itoduni

Translator: We want everybody to be given equal opportunity, you must not dress in an attire to be in class. You can go to class with your original attire.

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki kiinakin alolom a kila itwan arotokin losukul

Translator: We have to consider about the poor also, so that every child is given the priority to go to school. It must not be from rich communities or families.

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki ngisbitari lu ewase

Translator: We need to have a mobile hospital with a mobile doctor, mobile school with mobile teachers.

Ewoi Apalo: teyei ekatukon dae

Translator: They must have a chief also who should mobile with them.

Ewoi Apalo: keyei eshida ya ekatukon

Translator: In case there is a problem there, then the chief who is mobile with them can report it down to the government in town.

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki aturok ka ngitunga luche lu eye lo town

Translator: We don't want to be told things here, we need to be connected to the people in town while we are in the field or in the bush.

Ewoi Apalo: teyei ekatunkon dae ka sua

Translator: So the chief who should be mobile must also have mobile elders. (chiefs elders)

Ewoi Apalo: kilipai ngulu dae

Translator: Then their pay should be there.

Ewoi Apalo: ifanyete kesi dae ekasi kwa itwan daang

Translator: They are working like everybody else.

Ewoi Apalo: nipudor iyong aloofis kongina

Translator: You cannot just move from the office.

Ewoi Apalo: bu tama be ipolokinit ngitunga lu eye raia tarai bo imuji iyong a nawi kon

Translator: He is saying that he cannot just move out of the office and start claiming that I'm the guy who is working in the field, everywhere while you are just from the office to your house you eat food and go back then you are in charge of guys who are in the field there. There must be a chief who should be with them.

Ewoi Apalo: mam iyong ekas

Translator: You have no job.

Ewoi Apalo: echamakina aria ngitunga elemunete

Translator: Chiefs should be elected by the people.

Ewoi Apalo: mere kiinakisi luche

Translator: You should not tip your job out and then you are given the job, it must be elected by the people.

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki kikosi sua mere tanapa kwa ngitunga lu eteauni

Translator: We want our chiefs to be exactly like us. They must not be dressed like in town, they should be with a shuka like the rest of the people he is governing.

Ewoi Apalo: mam raia ngakipi kwa etaumi

Translator: So because of lack of water in the field, you don't need to look well dressed, because you will lack water to wash your attire.

Ewoi Apalo: eyei iche bore

Translator: There is another thing.

Ewoi Apalo: eya sua ngibaren lupe eyario lotauni luapolok kwa Nairobi

Translator: We have some livestock that cannot be taken to major markets like Nairobi.

Ewoi Apalo: nyo emam kari itwan eyari ngibaren kosi ni ikweni Nairobi

Translator: Why haven't we never thought of taking our animals to the markets like Nairobi, why? And other community must have been marketing their animals in Nairobi.

Ewoi Apalo: nyo bo ebeyere be echamakina ngiche baren ichumio tamam ngiche?

Translator: Whats happening with the medicine for animals is the same. Why should some animals be injected and others are not?

Ewoi Apalo: kichumai ngibare kosi daang

Translator: So if it means treating all the livestock, let us do it for every Kenyan.

Ewoi Apalo: pe kiyeni iyong kirai sua dae ngi kakenya

Translator: If you didn't know, we are Kenyans.

Ewoi Apalo: ani kemam kimiekini atoliworsi ngiturkana kori ngiraia

Ewoi Apalo: iche bore

Translator: There is another thing.

Ewoi Apalo: be eyei lokwakel

Translator: 1. There is AIDS.

Ewoi Apalo: kiyeni sua ni ea ngidekisinei

Translator: From the word go, since we started surviving, can we know where the disease came from?

Ewoi Apalo: kiyeni sua ni eponenata

Translator: Can we know where the disease came out from? Where did it come from?

Ewoi Apalo: aluwahi kolo abunio edke ngolo

Translator: He is saying that “where did the disease come out from”? Please if you guys do not allow the rest of us who are innocent suffer from the disease.

Ewoi Apalo: nyo kimiekinetere sua luche atotok

Translator: Why shouldn't the government know exactly why the disease has come through and lets try to block it?

Ewoi Apalo: ibalasi be irakasi ngikapolok a ngitunga

Translator: You've already said that you are in charge of everybody.

Ewoi Apalo: yaut karai anakop a ngimusungi da. Kisaki sua

Translator: If you know where the disease is coming from or the medicine, please go and get it; even if it is from Europe, just go and get the medicine for us. Please do that.

Ewoi Apalo: eyei iche bore

Translator: There is another thing.

Ewoi Apalo: ngakiro a eskul

Translator: About education

Ewoi Apalo: a ngide kosi

Translator: of our children

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki kiyunun eskul lo apas akwar ni ibonguneto

Translator: Education, we want our children to be given free education if you have come back to us. Have you come back to us really?

Ewoi Apalo: mam sua ngamanat. Kisaki ngide kosi kisoamata

Translator: We want our kids to enjoy free education, we have no farms to actually pay their fees.

Ewoi Apalo: iche bore

Translator: Another thing.

Ewoi Apalo: eya ngimoi wadaang

Translator: We have raiders, cattle rustlers, do this

Ewoi Apalo: nyo ifanyete ngaskaria na ebyo igiritae?

Translator: You have security personnel, you said you've employ them, what job are they doing?

Ewoi Apalo: kisaki sua kea mini niti kilosi sua ka ngibaren kosi

Translator: We want the military to be within the animals, livestock, they should be moving with them together.

Ewoi Apalo: tolemarere ngakiro na aremu

Translator: So that we cut down the rustling process.

Ewoi Apalo: arumori nakang kani

Translator: That is all.

Com. Kangu: Asante sana mzee, sasa tupate, Ekadeli Egroin.

Ekadeli Egroin: eking kiro ngesi Ekadeli Egiron

Translator: My names are Ekadeli Egroin.

Ekadeli Egroin: abunit akirworo aria ayong

Translator: He has come as an individual.

Ekadeli Egroin: nabongikini nata Alimt luche

Translator: I will not repeat what others have said,

Ekadeli Egroin: ngakiro na akuuta ka ngibaren

Translator: About marriage and dowry.

Ekadeli Egroin: kiwakinae lotal

Translator: That one should be put into the constitution, the dowry

Ekadeli Egroin: toyene a katiba ngibren luipotorio

Translator: The constitution must know the number of animals that are used during a wedding.

Ekadeli Egroin: ngibaren luelem akuuta

Translator: The animals that you should pay when you have an affair with a lady without the consent of the parents are:

Ekadeli Egroin: ngibaren luipotori itwan na einakinere aberu

Translator: They are the animals you pay the first moment that you have given the lady the first child.

Ekadeli Egroin: aria ngitomwon uni

Translator: They are 30 animals.

Ekadeli Egroin: alotoma ka kangulu eya ngitom luupalok

Translator: From the 30 we have 10 animals that are supposed to be called big animals.

Ekadeli Egroin: nganei ishirin

Translator: Goats are 20.

Ekadeli Egroin: nidounere ikiok ni a ngiarei, kipoto ngitomo aka epei

Translator: After the second baby is born, then you pay another 11 animals.

Ekadeli Egroin: nganei ngatomon ka ibarasit ipei ni apolon

Translator: 10 goats and one big animal.

Ekadeli Egroin: anikemam ni apolon, kipoto luuchik

Translator: If you don't have big animals then you can pay the dowery using small animals, the same number.

Ekadeli Egroin: ni ekingareni ngini

Translator: That is number one.

Ekadeli Egroin: ngakiro akirum

Translator: About inheritance.

Ekadeli Egroin: eyei a kirum tani bo ebeyo mam

Translator: As much as we would want to say we don't want to inherit, there is inheritance.

Ekadeli Egroin: nyo eron kirum iyong aberu alo lokatokon?

Translator: Why? You inherit your brother's wife.

Ekadeli Egroin: ni alo katokon bon iusi iyong mere ni a iche twan

Translator: You cannot inherit anybody's wife. You only inherit your brother's wife who contributed the animals for her marriage.

Ekadeli Egroin: adauni lokatokon

Translator: Yes, the brother is dead,

Ekadeli Egroin: edit aberu

Translator: the lady is still young,

Ekadeli Egroin: nikimiekin sua ngesi totlot tasaka echie kile

Translator: We cannot allow her to go out and look for another man while we have men in our family.

Ekadeli Egroin: kiboikin nikosi kotere eya ngikiliok nikkosi

Translator: You remain with us because we have men in that house and as good as it has been with the husband, because I'm the brother of the late.

Ekadeli Egroin: adauni lokatokang todit aberu

Translator: My brother died and the lady was still young, so

Ekadeli Egroin: na aria kar tokona ayong apolot, erumi robo ibore dang etopolou ngide keng

Translator: Now that I will be in charge of everything, then I will be the one who will be involved in every process, even in making the children grow up until the time they mature enough, then I will still give them their place while he is the husband acting.

Ekadeli Egroin: iche ibore abala atolim

Translator: Another point I would want to say,

Ekadeli Egroin: erono eukudi kosi

Translator: Our roads are in a very very bad shape.

Ekadeli Egroin: tosubakinae erukudi lo

Translator: The constitution should actually stipulate that the roads to every person in Kenya especially Turkana should be tarmaked like any other part of the country.

Ekadeli Egroin: yaunai astima dae turkan

Translator: Electricity should also be supplied to people in Turkana.

Ekadeli Egroin: na esali ngesi na ngikatukok

Translator: The last one is about the chiefs and the elders.

Ekadeli Egroin: abeyo aroketa ngiche katukok

Translator: It was reported earlier that there are some elders who are becoming a problem to wananchi because they are siphoning from the wananchi.

Ekadeli Egroin: itemikino eriana ka iyong

Translator: That is true according to you.

Ekadeli Egroin: na itwan niititakinitai. Einakinitai ekasi lo ifanyi

Translator: How about the person who is accused, he has been given the job to do,

Ekadeli Egroin: kutoka nataparch tonang ngassa ngakan karaei

Translator: from 7 oclock in the morning, to one oclock in the afternoon.

Ekadeli Egroin: tobonga nabo ngass ngakn kwomon tananga ngass ngatomon

Translator: 3 oclock again, up to 4 oclock.

Ekadeli Egroin: emie ngesi ibore ni echamakina esubi

Translator: He's left every thing he is supposed to do when he is....

Ekadeli Egroin: ngibaren keng daang ka awi

Translator: his animals, everything that involves in the family.

Ekadeli Egroin: na elosio nawi toriem ibore daang pe itomokino

Translator: When he goes back home he finds everything in the house is not in good order.

Ekadeli Egroin: moi nabo bu loofis nataparach

Translator: Tomorrow again he comes back to the office from morning to evening.

Ekadeli Egroin: ekasukout ngesi eyeni nyo esuba

Translator: An elder is actually the person who knows what normally happens in every village.

Ekadeli Egroin: ngesi eyeni ngakiro na eya ina

Translator: He is the one who is involved in the community day and night about issues.

Interjection: tolim ibore ni isaki iyong?

Com. Kangu: Anataka tufanye nini kwa wazee hawa wanafanya kazi?

Ekadeli Egroin: kisaki nakinai ngitunga ngulu ngadi ropiae

Translator: We want those elders to be paid something, so that they will stop the habit of trying to loot from the other people.

Ekadeli Egroin: mam itwan ifanyi ekasi a ngakan

Translator: Nobody works for nothing.

Ekadeli Egroin: echamakina einakinio idio bore

Translator: They should be paid some allowance so that they will stop what somebody was trying to say, that they tried to loot from the people themselves.

Ekadeli Egroin: kiwaki ngina totalr

Translator: Please put that one into the constitution.

Ekadeli Egroin: kotere itwaan ni iruoro eyeni ibore ni ebakar kongin

Translator: Because whoever was talking about that must have actually known what he was talking about.

Ekadeli Egroin: Vernacular

Translator: ibore asaki Alimn ngini

Com. Kangu: Asante, kuja andikisha hapa.

Paul Epolot: My names are Paul Epolot

Translator: eking kiro paul epolot

Paul Epolot: I have come to present the views of the disabled as one of the educated disables in this constituency.

Translator: abuniit Alimn kidiamma ngikangwalak

Paul Epolot: I'm a teacher by profession

Translator: aria ayong emualim

Paul Epolot: And I would wish to put this clear.

Translator: asaki keteyene nguna

Paul Epolot: The disabled for a long time, have been put as if they are there to be seen and not to be heard.

Translator: apasikini kolong ngikangwalak noi ikoni ibore nimiekinitai

Paul Epolot: And in most cases, the NGOs, I don't know and the CDOs have been left to deal with the disabled issues.

Translator: emiekini ngakampunio ngache ishugulikakina ngikangwalak

Paul Epolot: So the Government has just given that responsibility to those sectors.

Translator: emiekina nangolenyang luche ekasi ngolo

Paul Epolot: I wonder where is the law that covers them?

Translator: aluwahi ebunitor esheria ngolo?

Paul Epolot: And that's why we are also happy, I'm also happy on their behalf to see and hear that the Constitution Commission have come to our place.

Translator: alakara ayong eirari atanmar apotu ngitunga akiirari ngakiro kosi

Paul Epolot: So with me, I have scripts both in plain and print and therefore I would request to give out the three copies of the print to the commissioners to read them on their own and then to take them.

Translator: atingit akaritas na abakar esomakinia ngipeyok lu eya ngareni ne

Paul Epolot: Because I will not read all of them.

Translator: nAlimni ibore daang

Paul Epolot: Now I have 8 issues in the memorandum and I will request to read only 4 of them.

Translator: ayakari ngakiro ngakanikauini, esomakini bon ngwomon

Paul Epolot: And in any case if there is a question you might ask.

Translator: kisaki kingiti ngesi ibore daang

Paul Epolot: Now the first issue is property ownership and inheritance laws.

Translator: na ekingaren ngesi na ngalup ka akirum

Paul Epolot: Property ownership.

Translator: etal a ngalup

Paul Epolot: This laws should advocate prioritization of the disabled.

Translator: echamakina ingolikini ngakiro a ngikangwalak

Paul Epolot: For in most cases the disabled are suppressed,

Translator: kotere kechi ebwelare

Paul Epolot: sidelined, or even neglected in such matters anyway.

Translator: kori ipasikinitai

Paul Epolot: Therefore, we press the government and the public Act,

Translator: kilipiti nangolenyang

Paul Epolot: to include this law of support.

Translator: kiwaki etal lo

Paul Epolot: To support to about 50% of ownership

Translator: kingaraki anusu angitunga

Paul Epolot: and inheritance of the property.

Translator: ka akirum a ngiboro

Paul Epolot: Anyway the event of the able bodied persons in the world to acquire property, is high compared to the disabled anyway.

Translator: eyakarito ngitunga lu ajokak kuliko lukangwalak

Paul Epolot: Therefore, this is the only way,

Translator: eroto lo bon eyei

Paul Epolot: in recognizing and respecting the presence of these people in the society.

Translator: ani kingarakini ngitunga lu

Paul Epolot: The law should penalize anybody going against this human rights.

Translator: echamakina esheria ititakini itwan dang ni ebwongi etal lo

Paul Epolot: After this law advocating for this,

Translator: anikingoliki etal lo ibore eni

Paul Epolot: it should on the other side provide avenues of supporting these persons

Translator: kingaraki kech awache

Paul Epolot: in managing,

Translator: aloboyer

Paul Epolot: supervising,

Translator: akingarakini kechi

Paul Epolot: and controlling this golden law of ownership and inheritance.

Translator: ka ainakini kechi ngalup nu

Paul Epolot: As in most cases the disabled although allowed to a great vote of ownership and inheritance,

Translator: nakinai ngalup nkalaak

Paul Epolot: cannot do the above.

Translator: pe kesubi ngakiro nguna

Paul Epolot: For they have to a great extent been subjected to obstruction in acquiring the above skills.

Translator: kotere nedeporete kechi akisub ngakiro aria kechi bon

Paul Epolot: That is because of inability or disability.

Translator: kotere engwelito

Paul Epolot: The above responsibility should by law lead to the establishment

Translator: kiwakinae etal ngolo

Paul Epolot: of a department held by professionals.

Translator: lokasia luapolok

Paul Epolot: Which will entirely deal with issues,

Translator: lu ingarakinete kechi

Paul Epolot: and matters arising concerning the rights and privileges of the disabled.

Translator: ka alololm kech

Paul Epolot: Now, establishment of a department of disabled,

Translator: kiwakinai a tukor a ngitunga aluengwelito

Paul Epolot: Should be in the ministry of culture and social services.

Translator: toliwor na mistry na ngitalio ngina

Paul Epolot: As far as the needs of the disabled are concerned in Kenya,

Translator: toliwor nangolenyang iyoki

Paul Epolot: anything pertaining to the disabled is always monitored

Translator: kingolik ibore daang niesuba ani kech

Paul Epolot: As far as needs of the disabled are concerned in Kenya, anything pertaining to the disabled is monitored in a very remote atmosphere.

Translator: kingolikiai ngakiro daang na esakete kechi

Paul Epolot: That is, it appears that affairs of the disabled in this ministry, seem to be incorporated activities in this ministry

Translator: imiekinitai ngakiro kech eya na tukor na r

Paul Epolot: Leaving the disabled to a great percentage to suffer.

Translator: tarai bo eumisarosi lukaalak kech

Paul Epolot: Because they assume that there are a few disabled in any given location.

Translator: kotere ebeyo ekidioko kech

Paul Epolot: Establishment of this department,

Translator: i atukor na

Paul Epolot: Shall to a great extent reach to the unreached in terms of education.

Translator: echamakina ingolikini ngakiro kech a emasom

Paul Epolot: In all capacities and even rehabilitation of these persons.

Translator: ka akingolikini atamar iboyete ejok

Paul Epolot: We say that, this law should be made to make this department an existing independent department in this ministry.

Translator: kiwakinae etl sodi atukor na toliwor ifanyi ngakiro keng make

Paul Epolot: This department shall in all ways help both the government and the public to evaluate,

Translator: kingarak nangolenyang ka luche

Paul Epolot: the development of the disabled.

Translator: akingolikini eboyer a ngikangwalak

Paul Epolot: And would pave way for accountability and transparency as far as funds are located to this department in all capacity building.

Translator: sodi kingolikinere eroto luitarere ngaropiae

Paul Epolot: This establishment of this department

Translator: aminere a atukor kana

Paul Epolot: should have nothing to do with the office of the President.

Translator: neliwor aka nangolenyang

Paul Epolot: Because even nowadays,

Translator: kotere ngirwa lu

Paul Epolot: for you to get funds for the disabled, it should be designated by the DC.

Translator: echamakina kitoro ni eyei Dc sodi kinakineree ngaropiae

Paul Epolot: No, this department should sign its own funds, not the D.C.

Translator: echamakina atukor na esubi ngakiro nake bon

Paul Epolot: This law should provide,

Translator: echamakina etal ingolikini ngakiro nu

Paul Epolot: a council that should be responsible,

Translator: kiwakinai ekiriam echie

Paul Epolot: in approving and forwarding of funds materials directed to these beneficiaries in this department.

Translator: kingolikinia erot luitorete ngaropia kingarakinia ngikangwalak

Paul Epolot: This department should be in the protocols of the national, provincial and district, to the sublocation levels.

Translator: echamakina eyei nakwapin daang

Paul Epolot: By doing this,

Translator: anikesubi nu

Paul Epolot: The disabled will to a great percentage receive services of the government, equal to the rest of Kenyans.

Translator: eanyunete lukaalak akingolikino

Paul Epolot: We suggest that

Translator: kilimuniti nu

Paul Epolot: this title of the council above,

Translator: ekiro lo ekiriam ka lo

Paul Epolot: to be known as the Kenya National Council for the Disabled.

Translator: ecahamakina aria lo tokona laimuni ngesi

Paul Epolot: Whose head should be headed by the blind himself or herself.

Translator: echamakina aria ekangwalani aria ekapolon keng

Paul Epolot: The council should have at least a formation of 7 percentage representation of the blind or the disabled anyway.

Translator: echamakina eyakar ngikangwalak luche dae

Paul Epolot: The rest of the issues about that department the commissioners you will read. Now about education:

Translator: ngakiro a eskul

Paul Epolot: All laws improved or created by education for the disabled, should provide room for the government to allocate funds to the department said above.

Translator: nangi nagolenyang ngikangwalak ngaropiae sodi kisomata

Paul Epolot: Which would help finding prospectives, that is the persons with disability anyway.

Translator: lo ingarakini kechi

Paul Epolot: In remote areas.

Translator: alo raia

Paul Epolot: Lets say inside the reserves there.

Translator: alotoma reseve

Paul Epolot: This will show government responsibility

Translator: itoduuni ekas a nangolenyang

Paul Epolot: For quiet parents, or people with disabilities have little to think about the disabled persons in this community.

Translator: kotere mam kechi ngakiro nakaalak itamete

Paul Epolot: In the formation of this law, the allocated areas.

Translator: ne esubere etal lo

Paul Epolot: The Turkanas or the desert areas should be given first priority, for their areas are poor.

Translator: nakinae turkan nafasi na ekingareni

Paul Epolot: Funding education for a child coming from a poor family,

Translator: ainakin ngide ngaropiae a nawi ani ibotonit

Paul Epolot: should be prioritized.

Translator: echamakina pe aria aka nangolenyang

Paul Epolot: It should be automatic.

Translator: echamakina aria atipei

Paul Epolot: If a person has been detected,

Translator: keanyun itwan

Paul Epolot: this person should not be tortured psychologically,

Translator: nechamakinio isuburao

Paul Epolot: by saying there is no funds allocated for you.

Translator: atamar mam ngaropiae kan

Paul Epolot: It should be something which is through and they should be educated. Therefore burseries should be automatic.

Translator: echamakina aria ibore ni arae atipei na kingarakinai kechi

Paul Epolot: And this validity of this should be checked by a panel of scrutinizers

Translator: kingolikinai kare ngakiro nu iteni

Paul Epolot: Who will prove that this person comes from a poor family.

Translator: tanyarai kare itwan daang ni eyeni ngesi

Paul Epolot: Because sometimes may be a teacher like me who is disabled,

Translator: kotere ache pak itwwan ni ikoni ayong angwolit

Paul Epolot: can even fake in and say help my child because he is disabled.

Translator: ewese atama asaki kengarakin

Paul Epolot: So this law should only be to the poor family.

Translator: toliwor a ngitunga alu ibotonit

Paul Epolot: So, a teacher, a pastor, a chief,

Translator: karai emwAlim eapastait

Paul Epolot: and any other referees who know this child,

Translator: kisaki kingitai

Com. Kangu: Ngoja kuna swalii.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: Asante sana, tunashukuru, your very detailed proposal, you have not said anything about the National Fund for Disabled and 2, the one you have proposed has 7 percent representation from disabled, why should it be 7% and not more? Because as the disabled are 10% of the population, but this is their own fund, why should it not be more?

Paul Epolot: Thank you for that question, it's a good question. We have just said this to be fair May be if we said 50%, you may say that we are selfish. So we are saying that because Okay, lets say now here in Turkana, we are ... and I don't know about the 7% representation of the council, may be I may ask also, always in a council, how many members should be there because I believe out of those, in that number of the councillors who will be formed, I believe that 7% of that number should be the disabled. That's what I meant.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: I got it, I want to know why you are putting it way below the population, the proportion of the disabled in the society, they are 10% but this is their own organization, why should they not be ----- (tape not clear)

Paul Epolot: May be, I may say that I wrote this in assumption that, in the council that I said, that is the national executive council, the members who will be in that panel, may be I just assumed that let us just be fair, if they are 12 members in that Get 7% of that – may be one person.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: inaudible question – (far from Mic) ... Why can't they run their own organization?

Paul Epolot: Surely they can, and I may be I will now also may be change my statement now to a greater percentage is allowed. Thank you.

Com. Kangu: Thank you very much. Sasa tupate Jacob Idoket.

Jacob Idoket: Hakuna, na inategemea, bibi akitaka.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: Na kwa Kiturkana, nani anaridhi mali?

Jacob Idoket: Kweli kama watoto wako wakubwa? Watoto ndio wanaridhi mali na mama yao, halafu wale madugu zao wawe surety ya kuchungia hao boma.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: Okay, I'm asking a gender question now, watoto wakike na wakiume, wagani*not clear*

Jacob Idoket: Sana kwa wale wakiume.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: (question not clear).

Jacob Idoket: Yaani, kwa wale vijana ndio wataridhi, wasichana wataolewa waende kwa boma zingine.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: Okay, wanaridhi nini?

Jacob Idoket: Mali ya mzee, kama kuna mifugo, chochote chenye ilikuwa inahusika na mzee.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: (question not clear).

Jacob Idoket: Kwa Turkana wanaridhi mifugo, ile walikuwa nayo, chochote yenyeye ilikuwa kama ngamia, mbuzi, ng'ombe, itakuwa chini ya vijana.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: Nataka kuuliza kwa sababu, kuna mjadala unaendelea ati watoto wote waridhi, sasa nataka kujua, kwa wewe, hapa Turkana inakuwa je? Kwa sababu watu wanasema (not clear)

Jacob Idoket: Kwangu, ningependa ile uridhi imbaki kwa vijana. Na yule msichana amepata mtoto akiwa kwa wazazi wake, pia ako na sehemu zake. Kwani ako nyumbani hajaenda mahali popote. Lakini wale wameolewa wameenda nje, hawana share.

Com. Kavetsa Adagala: Lakini pia kule wanaolewa, hawana share.

Jacob Idoket: Huko kuna surety kwa sababu, wakati tunapeana, kuna mahali wazazi wanakutana ya kwamba tumechukua, ngoja mali.

Akapor Numus: ngakiro angalup gag nguna

Translator: That's all I had about land.

Akapor Numus: na ngarei

Translator: Second point:

Akapor Numus: aria kidiamma ngibaren, iyonete esi atamar aria ngibren aman a ngitukanaa

Translator: This is about the brideprice, you know in Turkana people are the source of livestock.

Akapor Numus: ikoni ibore amana neede itwaan, ngae bo ebuni tolema ibore en

Translator: Sometimes people are like a shamba where the Turkanas harvest animals from. I don't know who is this that will want to cut bride price.

Akapor Numus: anierika nolemara ngibaren

Translator: Before I have declared to remove the bride price myself.

Akapor Numus: eyei kila ibore ngatacheta

Translator: In this world everything has got its own price quotation.

Akapor Numus: ebunit ibore alotal alo ngitunga aluche

Translator: Anything that comes from other people's culture, I have not gone there to say, "remove this price value of this particular item".

Akapor Numus: alo turkan aria ngibaren abichar

Translator: Here in Turkana the bride price is a business.

Akapor Numus: egiel itwn aberu alotunga aluvhe

Translator: People buy wives from other families. Before you have done that, that person will not be your wife.

Akapor Numus: ingarakinito ngibaren ngulu ngitunga a itwan aniche kangini

Translator: The bride price is directly helping the relatives of that particular lady – who is being married.

Akapor Numus: eyei emong loerio

Translator: There is a bull that is slaughtered when there is a wedding ceremony. This is like a surety, this is like a signature that this marriage has been done officially.

Akapor Numus: aria pele ngibaren ngitomon ka nguni

Translator: The bride price is always 30 animals in every ..

Akapor Numus: ani kebariti kietak

Translator: The limit line is 30 but if somebody is rich, it should go beyond that.

Akapor Numus: ngakiro na eskul

Translator: The third thing I want to talk is, education came from the white people.

Akapor Numus: ayaunia kolong ni eyei ekirion

Translator: This education was extended to all Africans,

Akapor Numus: nyo boienyaia ekirion loche

Translator: What is this that made other black Africans abuse others, and say you are left behind, when this education that came from the white people was given to all Africans.

Akapor Numus: ayaunio kolong ibore daang ni eyei neke anakwap a ngimusuungui

Translator: All the resources we got from the white men including even this Turkwel dam hydro power, the aid was brought from the foreign countries. I don't know why it is not benefiting the locals here, when it was meant to benefit the locals here.

Akapor Numus: arumor nakang

Translator: That's all.

Com. Kangu: Mzee goja kidogo. Kabla wabunge hawajakuja, kabla Kenya hajakuwa uhuru, wapinzani walikuwa wanafanya nini kuhusu maji hapa kwa Turkana, walikuwa wana ... walikuwa na shida ya maji au walikuwa wanfanya nini kama drought ikifika, walikuwa wanafanya nini?

Akapor Numus: abokete kolong ngiturkana ngakipi

Translator: The Turkana were drilling boreholes for themselves in order to get water for their own animals and for themselves.

Com. Kangu: So, there is traditional technology?

Akapor Numus: aria eujusi kosi

Translator: Yes, it was a traditional technology.

Com. Kangu: Okay, you said that government should know, but why don't you drill now?

Akapor Numus: eringa ebokete

Translator: They are still digging boreholes.

Com. Kangu: Themselves?

Akapor Numus: kech bon

Translator: Yes themselves. Water wells.

Com. Kangu: Asante. Tupate Ricardo Ropoyot. Natujaribu kuenda haraka kwa sababu masaa inaenda na tunataka kila mtu mwenye ameingiza jina hapa apate nafasi. So Bwana Ricardo uende point mara moja vile wengine walikuwa wanapeana.

Com. Kangu: Thank you very much, we have no question for you. Samson Ikacho, but you said you will come last on the list. So instead can we have Celina Esegoletot.

Celina Esegoletot: eking kiro Celina Asirite

Translator: Her name is Celina Esegoletot

Celina Esegoletot: mam nakalak abala atolimu

Translator: I don't have much to come and say over here.

Celina Esegoletot: asaki atoeyen

Translator: Something little.

Celina Esegoletot: ikokini sua Kieni nikilimoikinio?

Translator: What can we really be told and we make sure that we know?

Celina Esegoletot: kisaki atoena keyei ibore imeikinitai

Translator: Tell us something and also we need to know if you have done something you had dropped earlier.

Celina Esegoletot: mam irumuni ngitunga lu itepete luche sodi kimiekinia ibore ngini

Translator: Sometimes there is rape, nobody actually arrests the rapist and jails, so that the habit can stop.

Celina Esegoletot: eurikini iche abreu a itwan

Translator: Some man gets a woman, a young lady and impregnates.

Celina Esegoletot: kimie ka neni

Translator: Then he drops the lady there.

Celina Esegoletot: ngai itani ikoku ngin? Arai ekile ngolo ngori nguria?

Translator: Who is supposed to take care of the girl? Is it the parents or the man who has actually impregnated her?

Celina Esegoletot: kisaki nangolenyang kiwaki esheria ngolo

Translator: We want to highlight that one as an issue to the government, so that when a man impregnates a lady, he takes care of the lady fully.

Celina Esegoletot: nimiekkini ka neni kiumisari ngesi

Translator: Not just to be dropped, and be left with the old mother starving.

Celina Esegoletot: kisaki sua yaunai astima turka

Translator: As we talk, we want electricity in all Turkana District

Celina Esegoletot: ne emini eshida kitembe nakware

Translator: So that we have no problems at night, walking.

Celina Esegoletot: yaunai kotere ngide a eskul dae

Translator: Electricity for our children and education, that is, in schools.

Celina Esegoletot: kisaki tosubae erukudi kosi

Translator: We want to say again, we want our roads to be repaired before elections, so that the Turkanas are coming just to vote, they come smoothly.

Celina Esegoletot: kisaki kitatam akigir tani bo kirai ngiraia

Translator: Another thing that we want, we want this area of ours, we are supposed to be given our education despite our attire. We are taught and then we learn.

Celina Esegoletot: atoyena na kilimuni

Translator: Then we will know what to say.

Celina Esegoletot: nikasaki ibore ni ebeyere be kirai sua ngiraya

Translator: And Turkana district, we do want the ideas where they are saying, those are raias, we cannot talk to them, and we are actually the people who belong here.

Celina Esegoletot: kisaki ngidawai lu apas

Translator: We want medical care, free: Free medical care. We die everyday because when you are sick, you have no money to pay for medicine, you just die in your house.

Celina Esegoletot: toloto itwan dang ni edeka ina kitojokai

Translator: We want free medical facilities, any time you are feeling unwell, you go, you are served freely.

Celina Esegoletot: ibore kibala ngini

Translator: That is what we want to say.

Celina Esegoletot: nakinae eskul lo apas kotere mam sua ngaropiae teyei arem

Translator: Give us schools, free education, those of us who have lost a lot of animals because of cattle rustling and we don't have money, we are so scared because of the fees.

Celina Esegoletot: ekokoyete ngide kosi kotere mama sua ngaropiae. Nyo erono?

Translator: Our kids are robbing all the buses because we cannot afford to take them to school. What is the problem?

Why is our land being pushed behind?

Com. Kangu: Sasa tupate Lewis Lopua.

Translator: kisaki Lewis Lepua

Lewis Lopua: eking kiro Lewis Lepua

Translator: My names are Lewis Lopua.

Lewis Lopua: kisaki taramai ekura egel

Translator: We want during the elections to have separate elections.

Lewis Lopua: kisaki toliwor chairman eyari ngakiro neemakari emjumbet

Translator: We are suggesting that after the election of the MPs and the councillors, the chairman of the county council should sometimes have time to attend the parliament session, to report what other councillors who will not have reported incase the MP does not do it.

Lewis Lopua: kisaki iche itwan topolok akop yaana ngakiro na kungolik ngakiro na ngakampunio

Translator: Apart from the MPs, we would want one person to represent the whole district at the parliament levels; so that if there is any provision like NGOs would want to develop the district, then the person will come down and tell the councilors; and all other local leaders that there is an NGO that would want to pursue a given objective.

Lewis Lopua: nechamakina ngaropaie nilipate ngitunga etachare ngiknsolai. Echamakina nangolenyang etachi

Translator: About taxes: The taxes that we collect from the local people should not be used as salaries for the councilors. Instead, the government should be able to pay the councillors, so that the money collected from the taxes is used to develop the district.

Lewis Lopua: ehamakina eiankinio ngaropiae niitemokino sodi kirwowotor ka luche

Translator: The councillors salaries must be enough, so that they are able to afford a vehicle for their movement, mobile telephone for this purpose, incase they would want to communicate to any leader anywhere.

Lewis Lopua: echamakina kila ekansolat eyeni ngaropaie na alemun alokidiamma akwap keng

Translator: Every councillor should be made to know how much money is allocated to the development of his own ward, instead of just trying to work like a group for nothing; without knowing the exact money allocated for each ward.

Lewis Lopua: echamkina kimiekinae tosuba ikech bore

Translator: The councillor should be allowed to run their own affairs, the Minister for Local Government should not be interfering with the local running of the county councils.

Lewis Lopua: kimie eruo a ngakiswahili. tunataka coucillors wachaguliwe, aakilishe, na madiwani- aakilishe madiwani wote katika mahitaji yote ya wananchi ili akuje aeleze wananchi na madiwani habari yote ili wananchi wapokee, mawasiliano bora.

Translator: We want the chairman to be elected, and we want him to represent the views of the councillors and also wananchi.

Lewis Lopua: Madiwani wanataka wenzetu wa machief wachaguliwe na wananchi, ya mahali inayohitajika. Kwa sababu wanatesa wananchi kwa kusema, "mimi sijaajiriwa na nyinyi. DC ndio ameniajiri, lazima nifuate maneno yao. Kikatiba lazima rushwa iangamizwe kwa njia ya kuwadhibu wanoyohitajika, hao wanayepatikana. Tunataka sheria inayoshtaki mwenye rushwa katika katiba.

Tunataka watumishi wa serikali katika sehemu yejote, unapofanyiwa mmoja wa wanajamii, lazima watumishi hawa wafuate mali yetu, mahali imeingia, ama yule amechukia; ili wananchi watakubali au watatabua watumushi wao. Sana sana watumishi hawa ni maD.C. machief na wengine.

Kwa ndoa: Mwanamke aliyelipwa, hana shida, ama yule mama ameuliwa dume, hakuna shida ata kama mama mzee wake amekufa, ama nini imetokea. Lazima huyu mama anajisimamia yeye mwenyewe mali yake, kila kitu yake, na watoto wake.

Kwa ndoa ya pili, mwanamke aliyepewa mahali bila dume, sio ya huyo mwanaume. Watoto, mama pamoja, kwa sababu hajaweka kidole kusema huyu mtoto wangu, huyu mwanaume atachukua. Lazima yule mwanamke na wale watoto bando ni watu wa wazazi wa mwananke. Mwanaume anaenda suluhu. Lazima desturi yetu isimamie imara vile ilikuwa. Kwa sababu mambo ya Katiba kama ya kisasa, watu wanabadilisha wanaleta destria ya Waluya, wanaleta destria ya Wakikuyu, ya Wajaluo, wanachanganya na madesturi ya watu wengine. Lakini desturi sio ya Waturkana kwa mambo ya ndoa, lazima isimame imara vile sisi tunasema.

Mipaka yetu ya ndani, ya Waturkana lazima watumishi wa utawala wetu, wale wanatusimamia katika wilaya; watusimamie kwa mfano sasa, sehemu zetu zingine saa hizi, sisi hatuishi huko, na tunadanganya kwamba hapa, sisi tuko na serikali hapa. Na sisi tunaona hatuna serikali kwa sababu haitushughulikii.

DO, PC, lazima watolewe sababu hawa ndio wanachangia mambo ya ufisadi. Ofisi ya DO ifungwe, haina maana kwa wananchi. Office ya PC ifungwe, kwa sababu haina maana. Kwa sababu maneno inapatangwa kwa PS, ye ye anaweka kwa pipa, anakataa tena ile maendeleo inakuja kwa wananchi. Yeye ndiye kuzuizi ya maendeleo ya wananchi. Halafu chief, DC, PS, ndio watabaki na yule atakaa mbele yule tunaita President. Lakini maneno kama hii ingine, hii watu watolewe katika Katiba. Interjection:

Com. Kangu: Utajaribu, jaribu kumaliza?

Lewis Lopua: Namaliza.

Adultery: Yaani, kama mtu katika desturi yetu katika Turkana zamani, mtu akifanya adultery, lazima mali yake yote ichukuliwe, na huyo mtu lazima auliwe, ili wale wengine waone fuzo. Lakini baadaye wakati mzungu alipoingia hapa Turkana, hapa kwetu hapa, anandanganya anasema “nitaajiri chief, nitaajiri DO nitaajiri DC atasaidia nyinyi. Kumbe ni uongo, kumbe ilikuwa akitupapasa. Ndio adultery imejaa hapa kwetu sana, lakini sisi tunataka siku ya leo ya Katiba, sisi tunataka, turudi kwa ile desturi yetu ya zamani.

Lewis Lopua: kisaki atobongo total loebala anikelom itwan, tolemarai ngibaren keng daang

Translator: We want to go back to our former culture where if somebody commits adultery, we are able to take all the animals and we kill the person so that the rest can learn.

Lewis Lopua: Stealing: Wakati mtu anapoimba kwetu hapa zamani kwa Turkana. Huyo kijana anatafuta yule mtu amekula mbuzi ya mtu, analetwa mbele ya wazee, na wazee ndio wanamweka kiboko, wanaweka huko kwa juu, wanapiga ye ye mpaka apate adabu zaidi. Lakini wakati huyu Mzungu na hawa watu alipoajiri, wizi imejaa dani sisi Waturkana. Lakini sisi Waturkana wakati huu kulingana na Katiba, sisi tunataka turudie desturi yetu ya kuchapa watu, tuchape mtu na tuweke kwa jua.

Killing: mambo ya uuaji End of side A tape 3

Anafungwa wiki mbili anarudi hapa, kwa hivyo sisi katika Katiba sasa, sisi tunataka yule mtu atuaa mtu, na sisi tuna muua. Tusiulizwe. Yangu ni hayo.

Com. Kangu: Asante sana. Sasa uko hapo unasema unajua wizi inasumbua wananchi sana sana ni ya pesa miingi huko juu. Are you saying that we need a severe punishment for such people, the corrupt and so on.? Tu-copy hii maneno ya Waturkana, tuitumie huko juu wale wanaimba pesa ya raia?

Lewis Lopua: Lakini sisi tunasema kulingana katika desturi kwa sababu kila kabile inakaa na mambo yake. Kwa sababu tunaona desturi ya watu wa juu huko, wanasema jambo la kwanza ati mtu kama ameimba, ye ye mwenyewe ndiye atalipa. Kama hana mali afungwe, lakini sisi Waturkana tunasema, kama mtu ameimba, lazima sisi tuue ye ye, ili gadhabu hii itoke dani yetu.

Com Kangu: Ndio sababu nauliza wewe, kwamba kuna mambo fulani Waturkana wanaweza fanya hapa kwenu. Lakini kuna shida zingine wasichana wanapata hapa, sababu pesa inaibiwa kule juu. Swali ni kwamba, can we borrow from our own traditional punishment system to group governance matters, ndio tuweze kwendelea sawa sawa? Can you explain please?

Lewis Lopua: Kulingana na hakika ya kikatiba sasa ile sisi tunataka sasa, tunataka namna hii: ingewezekana katika Katiba kama ni ya taifa nzima, desturi yetu ya Waturkana itumiwe kila mahali kama ya taifa, kama ni ya kabilo, kabilo sisi, tunatumia yetu.

Com. Kangu: Asante sana Bwana Lemkol, mambo yako imekuwa mambo mzuri, jana niliambia Waturkana Kakuma, kama kuna yule anafikiria Waturkana hawajui shida zao na conditions, hajui vile anasema. Na wewe umezungumza na ukaonyesha wazi Waturkana wanajua shida zao, na lazima wapatiwe nafasi wazungumze waseme shida yao na wahuishwe katika kutafuta suluhisho ya shida yao na shida ya Wakenya wengine. Umesema maneno mzuri, umesema maneno ya kuenda Nairobi kutafuta title deed, na sio title deed pekee. Iko mambo meengi yenye hakuna haja iwekwe Nairobi. Mnatumia pesa nyiingi ku-access government offices saa ingine inaweza wekwa hapa. Hakuna haja uwe unaenda huku, unamwaga pesa huko, unarudi kuuza mbuzi yako, unarudi kumwaga huko, na hakuna yule anakuja kumwaga huku. Neenda basi uandikishe.

Daudi Lemkol: Asante sana, nashukuru kwa sababu nilikuwa nanugunika nilipoketi chini, kwa sababu mimi leo niliketi hapo Lonene, mmenipa nafasi, hata sasa uchovu imekwisha. (laughter)

Com. Kangu: You are very intelligent. Na hiyo cassette kijana uweke vizuri, I think we will need to get that cassette heard by everybody in this country. Abdilahi Warsama.

Kwa sababu sasa masaa inaenda, nataka yale wenye bado tunaendelea, tunaenda haraka haraka point points na kama kuna zile wengine wametaja na unaona hakuna haja kurudia, ndio tupate nafasi ya kila mtu.

Abdilahi Warsama: Asante sana, mimi kwa jina naitwa Abdilahi Warsama, yaani councillor, kwa jina ingine inajulikana kijana ya Lokichar. Kwa hivyo asante sana nashukuru commissioners vile mlikuja hapa, mnatuuliza maoni yetu, ama mnapokea maoni yetu.

Translator: yau nangolenyak ngakiro a eskul wadaang

Joseph Ewoi: That is all about education.

Translator: torumor kanreni

Joseph Ewoi: 3. Hospitali – Health – the government to introduce mobile clinic to all hazard districts in Kenya.

2. health centres, hospitals, dispensaries, to be built in remote areas in all hazard districts in Kenya and probably in every location.

Translator: yaunai ngisibitari lu a pas nikosi

Joseph Ewoi: 3. A committee to be represented in the management of drugs allocated to all hospitals should be managed by elected committees and the chairman of these committees should be elected by the locals.

Translator: mino ngitunga lu iposoet ngidawi

Joseph Ewoi: 4. Corruption and finances: 1. Civil servants to be paid adequate salaries to avoid corruption in public offices.

Translator: tatachae ngikansolai ejok

Joseph Ewoi: Police to stop getting money from road blocks, and asking locals to give them bribes.

Translator: nikisumbua sua polis

Joseph Ewoi: All public officers should be charged according to the law, when found soliciting for bribes.

Translator: kititakinai ngitunga dang

Joseph Ewoi: Establishment of Anti-Corruption Authority in every district, and this commission should be represented properly by locals for example the Constitution Review Commission we have here now, we don't have even one Turkana. That is all about it.

Com. Kangu: Asante sana, na wengine mjue sasa masaa zimebaki nayo ni ndogo, dakika kidogo – sasa yale yamezungumzwa hapana rudia, yale hayajarudiwa ndio unazungumzia. James Lominen. Yale yenyehaijaguzwa ndio unashika haraka haraka tupatia mwingine nafasi.

Translator: tolim ibore ni eroko nelimno

James Lominen: I'm James Lominen.

Translator: Venyaritae James Lominen

James Lominen: Pastoralist in nature, and student leader. I acknowledge all the contributions or the views of the first speakers.

Translator: etopolounit ngakiro na Alimn

James Lominen: I'm just speaking out what they forgot to mention.

Translator: eruorokn na emuriak

James Lominen: Concerning education, we must have a flexible curriculum; this curriculum must accommodate the needs of the pastoralists.

Translator: yaunai eskul lo a pas

James Lominen: There is no need of teaching the pastoralists about farming, and they are not doing farming.

Translator: mam aja akitatama ngiraiia

James Lominen: Teach them about pastoralism so that they can improve it.

Translator: kitatam ngakiro a ngatuk

James Lominen: The constitution must accommodate special consideration to hazard areas in terms of education. In that connection, the cut off points – entry points to university – the pastoralists community, the part for a pastoralist community should not be the same with the farming committee. Those who are getting facilities everything there.

Translator: kiinakini a kop nakolo arai akosi

James Lominen: If in the farming community its B, the pastoralist community should be a C+, because if you see the conditions of the schools in the pastoral areas, its actually pathetic and you don't actually expect them to perform well.

Translator: kiinakini ngamanat atata

James Lominen: Security: The pastoralists must be given their rights to access and utilize resources available without any fear.

Translator: kisaki kiyoki sua noi

James Lominen: Let the pastoralists enjoy all their resources.

Translator: Vernacular

James Lominen: Pastoralists must be allowed to move freely anywhere in Kenya and outside in search of pasture and water.

Translator: kimiekini elaa

James Lominen: They should not be restricted because they are problematic in nature, they have problems that have breeding needs.

Translator: nikitowo sua itwani awadang

James Lominen: There might be mobile and payable security. Those who are concerned with the issue of security like KPR, chiefs, elders, they should be paid so that they can see the need of having security .

Translator: yauniai karai KPR dae potu kiyoko

James Lominen: On security again, the illegal ownership of harmful weapons be investigated appropriately, and sources or springs be handled accordingly.

Translator: tolemarae ngatomen daang

James Lominen: You cannot just come and You should first start with the source of harmful weapons, where they are coming from.

Translator: kiansakinai anikolong esiekinatai

James Lominen: Representation: Constitution to define Kenya society into farming and pastoralist community.

Translator: kisaki kiinakin ngamanat

James Lominen: The constitution should define clearly that the Kenyan community is comprised of farming community, and pastoral community.

Translator: tamarai eya ngitaang dae nikosi ne

James Lominen: So when it comes to sharing of national cake, the first top post like the President and the Prime Minister or Vice President, if the post of the President has gone to farming community, and then the Vice President or the Prime Minister should go to the pastoral community and if the farming community has taken, it should be vise-versa.

Translator: kiinakini sua apolou na alokidiamma

James Lominen: I think Mr. Tobiko you will support me.

Interjection - Com. Kangu: You are banned from getting support here, he is not supportive

James Lominen: He is also a member, he is a pastoralist. He is concerned.

Translator: arai ngesi arayait

Com. Kangu: I'm saying here he is banned from doing that.

James Lominen: Okay, about the representation, formation of the ministry of Pastoral Affairs. This means we should concern the affairs of the pastoralists to make sure all their needs are met.

Translator: mini itwan niite ngakiro a ngiraia

Com. Kangu: Basi maliza twenda kwa mwingine.

James Lominen: Representation be based on area of coverage other than entire population figures. The Km Sq. for Turkana is 77,000 Km. Sq. So we suggest this: civic representation must be a 100 to 5000 Km. Sq. to form a ward.

Translator: toliwor kwa natokona elimunitor ngesi

James Lominen: And then a constituency 10,000 to 15,000 Km. Sq. That means Turkana should form 7 constituencies. This we allow maximum representation and utilization of resources.

Translator: mino ngimjube 7 turkan toplokis

James Lominen: There is also formation of constitutional committees – these people should monitor the performance of the MPs in the parliament.

Translator: kiwapai ekasi lo ifanyi emjumbet

James Lominen: Last, every idea or objective, project, or finance, implied or not, to remain direct property of that area or community.

Translator: toliwor ngaropiae aka ngitunga

James Lominen: This issue of Non Governmental Organizations after the phase is out, they go with the vehicles, they go with everything back to where they came from.

Translator: tobongo ngakampunio nikoloaponeta

James Lominen: This issue will remain here.

Translator: kidongo nakosi ne

James Lominen: The issue of councillors – councillors should not be there in this community of Kenya .

Com. Kangu: Basi si imetosha tu kumpatia mwingine? Tulisema ile yenyehaijaguzwa.

Translator: arumori nakoni. Ainakisi iche twan

James Lominen: And then lastly, lastly please, if women are given maternity leave, men should also be given paternity leave because when a woman needs special care from a man. So when she has been given maternity, the man should also be given that chance to go and care for this delicate object.

Translator: kiinakini sua dae ngikiliok atalot lo leave

James Lominen: And then the constitution should be flexible. The Constitution Review Commission should actually be independent. It should not survive under the mercies of the President.

Translator: atukor na ekura ne emini kopo iche twan

James Lominen: Okay thank you.

Translator: ebyo arumori

Com. Kangu: The only problem is that polygamous men might be on leave throughout the year. Thank you thank you. Hellen Alim, Hellen Alim yuko? Haraka mama, tunasubiri. Tat u ile haijaguzwa tuendelee kwa mwingine.

Helen Alim: ayong Hellen Alim

Translator: I'm Helen Alim

Helen Alim: asaki atelimu ngakidikdio kidiamma ngiturkana

Translator: I have not much to say, I will say a little about Turkanas. That is the culture I know. I will say something about that.

Helen Alim: etal a ngiturkana ibore en

Translator: That is the Turkana culture.

Helen Alim: Alimt lukaalak

Translator: Many have said much about it, they have exhausted.

Helen Alim: ekichul e ekile ngesi ngibaren lu echamakina ngesi kipoto kotere aurikini apese

Translator: The Turkanas, the child that was born out of wedlock and the husband abandons him; the brideprice for that child is 30 animals. If the husband loves the kid, if the husband loves his wife, then you will go on ahead and marry the lady according to the arrangements between him and the parents of the lady.

Helen Alim: lo ebarit torumo ngakeng kiro ka nen. Etal epei a ngiturkan lo

Translator: And a rich man will now finish the negotiation there. The parents of the lady. They will strike a deal and agree upon the animals to be given as brideprice in a very good way. And also take his wife in a very good with. That is one of the cultural laws I know, that is one.

Helen Alim: yau nangolenyang ngide losukul kilakara sua

Translator: And the government bring the children to school, we are very happy because our children have bame back to teach us.

Helen Alim: kingolik itwani nikiinakinit akaku ka niche nikiinakinit eret

Translator: We look at somebody who is giving us a back, we go on asking our children, who is this that is giving us back and the other person who is facing East?

Helen Alim: kiingisi sua ngide kosi tangayi ngitunga ngulu

Translator: We will go and ask our children, who are these people? We are asking our children if they can, why don't they go there and tell this person to also face to our side?

Helen Alim: kilimokini ngide atamar aloto loskul

Translator: We are also saying or we are telling our children, you have also gone to school.

Helen Alim: kia sua esi losukul, kitatamai

Translator: We also took you to school; you will teach us whatever you have learned from your school.

Helen Alim: ngakiro a ngidawai

Translator: The health matters: We are also saying that we request the government to give us free medical services. We have so many things that are affecting us. That's another thing.

Helen Alim: kisaki sua toliwor ngdawai ngik pas

Translator: Drugs: We want this medicine to be free. When we get sick and then they tell us to buy these drugs, and some of us are poor, then the poor will die because they cannot access these drugs.

Helen Alim: mam nikianyunia ngaropiae kigiela

Translator: We are unable to get money to buy these drugs. Therefore we now request the government to give us free medical services.

Helen Alim: ibore ni ebalasi ngide kitatamete sua ngiure

Translator: Whatever our children are telling us now, they are teaching us something. It is our children that know now the good part and the bad part of the government. We will listen to them until we understand fully what is the government.

Com. Kangu: Asante basi mama, na watoto Waturkana mmesema mmesikia mama anasema mpigane na wale wanaonyesha nyinyi mgongo. Master Philip Kabuwa, Kama hayuko Jackson Echarae.

Jackson Echarae: Kwa majina mimi naitwa Jackson Echarae Terere na nina maoni ambayo ningezungumza kwa upande wa livestock maana shamba letu tukiwa wajamii wa Turkana, ni wanyama.

Translator: eking kiro ngolo mama nakalak erouro

Jackson Echarae: Maoni yangu ni kwamba, nikiwa mwanakenya, nataka serikali iondoe quarantine kuzuia wanyama wetu kuingia katika sehemu kama Western, Nyanza,

Translator: asaki nangolenyang kirataki ngibren neelomasi wache

Jackson Echarae: Tutembeze wanyama wetu kama vile wale wakulima, wale wanapanda mashamba wanakula mahindi yao wanazungusha kwa malorry wanaleta, wanaiza gunia moja, mbili, tatu. Hata sisi tutembeze wanyama wetu namna hiyo. Maana hiyo ndio shamba letu. Kila mwaka tunavuna. Kwa hivyo serikali aweke maanani hayo.

Translator: atotinga sua ngibren kosi kwa napalem a ngamanat kotere ibore arai amana kosi ngini

Jackson Echarae: Kama vile anaweka wale wanapanda mashamba yao wanaweka maanani. Serikali ituangalie huko zaidi kuliko kutuletea mahindi. Hii nayo inatosha kuwa mahindi yetu.

Translator: itomokino aliwor aman anikosi

Com. Kangu: Ya Mwisho, tunafunga.

Jackson Echarae: Jambo lingine la pili ni kwamba, nataka serikali iangalie jamii ya wafugaji, iweke market kama vile imeweka kwa wale watu wanavuna mahindi; cereals board, iweka hata livestock marketing board.

Translator: kiwakinai emarket a gielari ngibaren kosi

Jackson Echarae: Ili iwe karibu na wananchi, ili tupeleke wanyama wetu end of side A tape 5

Jackson Echarae: Mali inahitajika, maana hii product ambayo tunapata kwa wanyama, sisi hatujui tutapeleka wapi? Na serikali ndio inatakikana iangalie ile product ambayo tunapata kwa wanyama, tutapeleka wapi especially ngozi, tutapeleka wapi?

Com. Kangu: Tunataka tusikize huyo chief kidogo ndio twende. Apana jali, kwa hiyo point ume-explain here tunesikia. Tupati Sub chief na ye ye aseme kidogo. Na sub chief useme jina.

Translator: bu chifu tolil idio bore

Josephine Akirae: Ninaitwa Josephine Akirae Akan. Maoni yangu ya kwamba machiefs wapewe transfer, na wawe na magari ya kutembelea huko vijijini. Hiyo yote inatosha hiyo.

Translator: eking kiro ngesi Josephine Akirae Akan. Asaki nakinae sua e transfer ka ngagario

Com. Kangu: Asante basi, Nataka kuwashukuru kwa maoni mumetoa, wale hawakufikiwa waandikishe wapeane kwa member ya committee atapeana kwa district headquarters, na tutapata maoni yenu.

Translator: asaki keshukur kotere ngakiro ni ilimut esi nguna luche kigirakisi kop kayununi

Com. Kangu: Watoto wako sasa wamesoma sana ye ye mweleze akuandikie halafu itumwe kama mwisho wa mwezi ujao haujakwisha. Kwa hivyo watu members wa committee atuitishie mtu wa kuomba halafu tufunge.
