1. DISTRICT CONTEXT.

Lugari Constituency is a constituency in Lugari District. Lugari District is one of 8 districts of the Western Province of Kenya.

1.1. Demographic Characteristics

District Population by Sex	Male	Female	Total
	105,273	110,647	215,920
Total District Population Aged 18 years & Below	64,133	63,606	127,739
Total District Population Aged Above 18 years	41,140	47,041	88,181
Population Density (persons/Km²)	322

1.2. Socio-Economic Profile

Lugari District:

- Is one of the least densely populated districts in the province, being ranked 7th of the 8 districts in the province;
- Has a primary school enrolment rate of 57.0%, being ranked 6th in the province and 50th nationally;
- Has a secondary school enrolment rate of 38.3%, being the leading in the province, and ranked 6 nationally;
- Experiences the following main diseases: Malaria, respiratory tract infections, diarrhoea diseases, intestinal worms, and skin diseases and infections; and
- Having rich soils, the residents are able to farm for their day-to-day needs, sale grain outside the district, and keep livestock.

Lugari District is a new district carved out of Kakamega District. It has 2 constituencies: Malava, and Lugari Constituencies. The district's 2 MPs, each cover on average an area of 335 Km² to reach 107,960 constituents. In the 1997 general elections, the ruling party, KANU, was able to get one of the parliamentary seats while, FORD-K got the other. KANU won the Lugari Constituency seat with 54.51% valid votes while FORD-K took the Malava Constituency seat with 53.31% valid votes.

2. CONSITUENCY PROFILE

Lugari Constituency is a settlement area with migrants from different communities: Luhya, Luo, Kikuyu, and Kalenjin ethnic communities. The Luhya ethnic community, though, is the dominant group, with the Maragoli and Bukusu groups having a substantial presence, and the Tachoni and Banyala groups being the smaller groups.

2.1. Socio-Economic Profile

This is one of the areas of Kakamega District that the farmers have large stretches of land with good harvest.

2.2. Electioneering and Political Information

The votes in the area are split between KANU and the opposition. KANU, however, has the upper hand. In the 1992 general election, the opposition, FORD-A, by 67.55% valid votes, won the parliamentary seat. However, the FORD-A representative defected to KANU in 1994, and a by-election was called for, and he won with 51.47% valid votes. In the 1997 general election, KANU won the parliamentary seat with 54.51% valid votes. In 2002, the National Rainbow Coalition won the seat.

2.6. Main Problems

A major issue here is the resettlement of 8000 Squatters on a 250-acre piece of land in Lugari Forest, after the government gave the consent for the settlement. It is said that Lugari leaders have been colluding with the provincial administration to sell the land irregularly. The few squatters settled in the forest are said to be from the Banyala and Maragoli ethnic groups, leaving the rest in the cold.

3. CONSTITUTION MAKING/REVIEW PROCESS

3.1. Constituency Constitutional Forums (CCFs)

3.1.1. Philosophy

The Constituency Constitutional Forum (CCF) plays a very significant role in the review of the constitution. It is designated as one of the organs 'through which the review process shall be conducted' - (sec. 4(1) of the Constitution of Kenya Review Act, Cap.3A). The importance attached to the CCF arises from the recognition of the need to involve the people fully in the review of the constitution. Only through such participation of the public will the new constitution reflect the preferences, hopes and aspirations of the people. It would also increase people's knowledge of constitutional issues, and facilitate their familiarity with the provisions of the new constitution. Additionally, the process, enhances the legitimacy of the constitution among Kenyans and their sense of ownership over it. In these ways the proper implementation and safeguarding of the constitution will be facilitated.

3.1.2. Composition and Establishment

The 1997 Review Act had provided for district forums 'to mobilize communities at the local level for the purpose of civic education in preparation for the Commission's work and to perform such other duties as the Commission may assign' - (sec. 12A (6)). The District Forums were to consist of members elected to represent locations, religious organizations, and the disabled, in addition to MPs and members of every local authority in the district. The Act contained several provisions prescribing minimum qualifications for membership and regulating the operations of the District Forums.

The Select Committee of the National Assembly, which reviewed the Act in early 2000, decided to replace the District Forums with Constituency Forums to get views 'directly from the people in the constituency without necessarily going through the rigours of an election to determine the members of the forum'. It thought that this would provide for a more popular form of participation. It recommended on the simplification of the forum to avoid elections. The Select Committee envisaged the constituency forum as an 'open forum with no specific structures', which should be 'flexible and easy to manage'. Its opinion was that the 'existing leadership comprising Members of Parliament, councilors, community based organizations, religious groups and individuals should be able to present views and opinions directly from the grassroots' (The Report of the Parliamentary Select Committee Reviewing the Constitution of Kenya Review Act, 1997, April 2000). It removed the regulatory powers of the Commission over the forum, its role being confined to the 'facilitation' of the forum. It also changed the function of the forum from the facilitation of civic education to also include facilitation and the collection of the views of the public on proposals to alter the constitution.

In view of the limited role of the CKRC in the establishment of the CCF's, the CKRC prepared and gazetted Guidelines for the operationalization of the constituency constitutional forums. The Guidelines stipulated that all the residents of a constituency would constitute the CCF. The CCF is described as one of the organs 'through which the review process shall be conducted' - (sec.4(1)). The CCF was thus one of the principal ways in which the views of the public were to be obtained.

In order to coordinate and facilitate the activities of the CCF, a Constituency Constitutional Committee (CCC) was to be established. The Guidelines proposed its membership to consist of 10 persons, of which three would be ex-officio: the local MP, the chair of the County Council in which the constituency is located, and the District Coordinator. The Guidelines stated that the membership would be as broad and representative of the people of the constituency as possible and recommended that at least a third of the committee should be women.

3.1.3. Functions of CCF

- Facilitation of collection of the views of the public at the constituency level on proposals to alter the constitution; and
- Debate and discussion of the views of the members of the public on proposals to alter the constitution.

In performance of these functions, the CKRC was required to visit all constituencies (Sec.18 (1)(a)).

3.1.4. Functions of CCC

- The functions of the CCC were mainly facilitative and advisory, the primary aim being to enhance the effective participation in the ownership of the constitution review process by the people at the constituency level;
- The CCC was also mandated to promote, facilitate and monitor civic education at the constituency level in collaboration with the District Coordinator and civic education providers;
- Additionally, the CCC had to ensure that the constituency had access to all information relevant to the review process in coordination with District Documentation centers; and
- Finally, the CCC was also mandated with the task of dissemination of the report of the CKRC. It was to be assisted in this by the District Coordinator, who was also its accounting officer, in relation to funds that were made available to it by CKRC.

It is important to emphasize that the Guidelines were advisory, and the local community was free to modify them to suit local circumstances. For example, the size of the CCC could be increased when and if adequate representation and diversity required it.

3.1.5. Date of Commencement of Work

The Constituency Constitutional Forum (CCF) was to run for an initial period commencing November 2001 up to September 2002. Accordingly, each Constituency Constitutional Committee (CCC) should have been constituted at the very latest by the end of November 2001. The Constituency Constitutional Forum was to be operational by that time.
